

2003 SATURDAY DELAFIELD FARMERS MARKET

Season: May 3 – October 25

Hours: 7:00 AM until 1:00 PM

Location: City parking lot on Main St., east of the Fish Hatchery, one block west of Genesee St. (Hwy. C)

✓ Items that can be sold:

Locally grown vegetables, fruits, flowers and plants. Locally produced eggs, honey, maple syrup, and fruit juices. Bakery and all other processed foods which must be processed at a state-licensed food-processing site. Homemade crafted items.

This is a producer-only market. All items must be grown, produced or crafted by the applying vendor.

✓ Items that can not be sold:

Meat, meat products, poultry, or fish. Live animals.
Absolutely no resale items or rummage – new or used.

✓ Market Spaces:

Spaces are assigned by the market manager. Check-in with the manager upon arrival each market day. If a vendor is assigned a reserved space based on seniority and three consecutive market days are missed once that vendor's market season starts, the reserved space will be reassigned to another vendor.

✓ Vendors Responsibilities:

Bring fresh, quality products to the market.

Must be in full compliance with all applicable federal, state and local laws & regulations. All required Wisconsin State licenses and permits are to be obtained by the vendors and copies are to be filed with the market manager.

Vendors are responsible for their own personal and product liability insurance.

Do not bring your pets to the market.

Clean up assigned space after each market day.

✓ Violations:

Violation of any of the rules, responsibilities or regulations may result in that vendor being barred from further participation in the market.

✓ Market Management:

Market Manager: Shirley Sanderson

Rules & Grievance Committee: Ray Eigenberger
Judy Gunther
Kathy Jenson
Judy Sandgren

Please address all inquiries and suggestions to the market manager or any member of the Rules and Grievance Committee. The Committee monitors freshness and quality of all market products and relates the findings to the vendors. All violations of market rules and any grievances are resolved by the Committee. The Committee juries all new vendors. Decisions made by the management team are final.

✓ Registration:

Complete the registration form and return it to the market manager before participating in the market. Enclose a check for the annual promotional fee of $15 per vendor and copies of all Wis. State licenses and permits required to participate in the market.
